HARVARD SWEEPS BROWN OFF FEET

Heavy Backfield Plows Through Visitors' Line for Consistent Gains.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Cambridge, Mass. November 15.—
Harvard swept the Brown men of their reet in their annual game to-day, deteating them 37 to 0, the result of five touchdowns, a goal from placement and four goals from touchdowns.

Harvard's new line-up played well, especially Hardwick, who has been converted to end from a half back, Hardwick's work down the field was of brilliant order, while the heavy artillery of the back field plowed through brown's line for gains ranging from rey of the back held plowed through rown's line for gains ranging from we to fifteen yards, and Mahan scut-ing the ends for big gains. Brown build do nothing against the Crimson no, and only once during the entire ame did the visitors make first down. In the first period Mahan fumbled the ball on the thirty-yard line after a leantiful run. Here, Henry, for Brewn, tried for a field goal, but missed it, and Harvard commenced its enward march Georgia to Meet Auburn.

Crisinp for the second time crossed the goal line.

From this point the Tech eleven braced and stubbornly contested every frich of ground. Time and again Georgia's fast backs carried the ball to within atching distances of the goal, only to find the sellow-lacket line impregnable at the fact. Tech tried despecially, but valuely, to score. Both elevent resorted to humerous trick plays, few of which netted material gains. The game was played on a dry, fant field under weather conditions that were ideal from the viewpoint of the immense crowd.

Carlisle Indians Defeat Dartmouth in Fierce Game by Score of 35 to 10. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, November 15.- The Carlisle Indians defeated Dartmouth 35 to 10 at the Pole Grounds to-day. The game was one of the flercest ever seen in New York, and the tackling was of such an order as to call forth frequent bisses from the spectators. The Indians upset all predictions, and after the first period swept the big Green team off their feet. The style of play adopted by the Indians was not bewildering to Dartmouth, but although the Dartmouth players were almost always able to diagnose the plunges of Guyon, Brakhn and Caiae.
